Mrs. Ferrell speaks to UDC

By MRS. TILDEN LEE

The Appomattox Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met on Thursday, May 15 at 8:00 p.m. at the Appomattox County Library.

Mrs. Lucille Ferrell, historian, presented a program on General Jubal Anderson Early, who was born in Franklin County Virginia in 1816. He came from an unrenowned part of the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia, graduated from U.S. Military Academy at West Point when he was 21 years of age.

He studied law and in 1840 began law practice at Rocky Mount, Va. A whig member of the Virginia Legislature 1841-42.

He was a member of the Virginia Convention of 1861, and was strongly opposed to recession but when his state left the union he offered his services. He accepted the appointment of colonel in the confederate forces and was sent to Lynchburg. Here he organized three regiments, one of which, "Twenth-Fourth Virginia," was assigned to him. He became famous at Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, and the Wilderness. He earned the faith and trust of General Robert E. Lee.

In 1863 he was promoted to Major General and Lt. General in 1864.

General Lee had great faith in his ability and entrusted him with an independent corps command in 1864. Lee sent Early with about 20,000 men into the Shenandoah Valley to attack the enemy forces and after driving them back Early marched on Washington, D.C.

After Lee surrendered Early started for the west. He returned to his law practice in Lynchburg, Va. in 1869 and died 25 years later on March 2, 1894. Early never took the oath of allegiance to the United States. He was unpopular during the war but later he regained public favor. He is ranked high on the list of confederate officers by some military authorities.

Mrs. Hazel Lee Martin, chapter president, presided at the meeting.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the United States flag was led by Mrs. Louise Plunkett.

Mrs. Frances Harvey led the salute to the Virginia flag, and the salute to the confederate flag was led by Mrs. Claudia Moore. Mrs. Martin read the ritual and confederate prayer.

The meeting concluded with the joining of hands and singing "Bless Be The Tie".

On Thursday June 19 the U.D.C. will meet at 12:30 p.m. at Maude's Restaurant in commemoration of Jefferson Davis birthday.
